Commercial Use License Statement

This document confirms the AI generation log of the Work and the user's usage rights under Tad.ai. This document does not constitute a copyright registration certificate, nor does it prove that the Work is eligible for copyright protection.

Tad.ai hereby confirms that:
User Name: samuel heinrich
Contact Email: info@samuel-heinrich.ch
Registered Account: Info@samuel-heinrich.ch has generated the work titled "08_MTU_0.2-2" via Tad.ai.

This work was generated by the AI music generation service by Tad.ai, based on prompts, lyrics, text, audio materials, reference audio, vocal assets, or other inputs submitted or confirmed by the User.

Subject to the user's compliance with Tad.ai's Terms of Service, Subscription Plans, and applicable laws, for the portion of the AI-generated output that Tad.ai legally owns, controls, or has the right to license, Tad.ai does not claim to be the original author of the Work and grants the user permission to use, reproduce, publish, distribute, upload to music streaming platforms, and commercially exploit the Work within the scope of the corresponding license plan. This license does not extend to user-input content, third-party materials, samples, reference audio, third-party vocals, artist names, likenesses, trademarks, or any other third-party rights.

The User represents and warrants that all content submitted, uploaded, or confirmed by the User for generating the Work-including but not limited to lyrics, melodies, audio materials, vocals, samples, backing tracks, reference audio, cover art, and other materials-is either original to the user, legally licensed, or lawfully available for use. The User shall not use Tad.ai to generate, upload, or distribute any content that infringes upon the copyrights, neighboring rights, performer's rights, rights of name, portrait rights, trademarks, or any other lawful rights of third parties. The User shall not, without authorization, imitate, clone, or imply the voice, identity, style, or likeness of real artists, public figures, or third parties.

The User acknowledges and agrees that AI-generated music may not qualify for full or independent copyright protection and may share similarities with third-party content. Tad.ai does not guarantee that the Work is eligible for copyright registration, that it is free from similarity to third-party works, that it will be accepted by distributors or streaming platforms, or that it will generate revenue. The User assumes sole responsibility for uploading, publishing, distributing, commercially exploiting, and securing necessary rights clearances for the Work, and shall bear all legal liabilities arising therefrom.
